Tournament Host

Bruce Matthews was drafted ninth in the first round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the Houston Oilers. He holds the league record for most games (296) and seasons (19) played by an offensive lineman. Bruce was selected to 14 Pro Bowls, a league record. In his first year of eligibility, 2007, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He continues to be active in supporting various charitable organizations such as Special Olympics, Leukemia Society and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.
